Kolchaks Gold

Umberto chose Andy who chose Chewbacca. I feel it helps with movies like The Reader where it seems like they're about to end, and then there's another 20 minutes of silence and meaningful looks, but I'm the only one among my friends who is not angry because I know what happens, so I'm fine.

The Everlasting Covenant

Lowe does not have an Oscar at home even though in my head he got one for playing Doctor Jack surname in Liberace.

Five Superpowers for Co-Creators: How change makers and business can achieve the Sustainable Development Goals

Loved it big time, but it's not for everybody. The lovely Elizabeth Raven took pictures as the authors received their trophy or certificate.

Worriers and Warriors: Manifesting the Fearless Faith to Win Without Even Trying

It is precisely the existence of human free will that limits the applicability of laws in the field of human behavior and makes sociological and economic laws substantially different from the laws of the natural sciences.

Run Away - A Thriller (Jon Stanton Mysteries Book 8)

Out of the two hundred or so stories, there were only a few that stood out - the rest were all repetitive, it felt like I was reading the same story over and over.
