Secret of the Labyrinth (The Temple of the Blind #5)

If all human beings are descended from Adam and Eve, philosophers wondered, how can one account for current differences between peoples. These creatures are tasked with helping the gods maintain their creation and so, although they are not themselves eternal, play an integral role in the eternal work of the gods.

Punished by the Professor

In the year Jesuit colleges did not exist, and even the great Dominican and Franciscan schools were far from sight in the future; but the School of Notre Dame at Paris existed, and taught the existence of God much as Archbishop Hildebert described it.
